

Sardis Presbyterian Youth Costa Rica Mission Trip FAQ

When is the mission trip?

June 17 - 27, 2020

Where will we be serving?

Brasilito, Costa Rica

Why have we chosen to serve in Costa Rica?

Sardis Youth Ministry has served in Costa Rica before to help the people receive computers from the government. We will again travel to Costa Rica and continue to work for the people of Costa Rica.

What will we be doing?

We will be constructing a building that will be used to house computers the government will provide for the village. We will also help lead Vacation Bible School activities for the children in the evening.

What is the plan for each day?

June 17 — Travel Day

June 18, 19, 20 — Work Days

June 21 (Sunday) — Sabbath, rest, explore the surrounding area

June 22, 23 — Work Days

June 24 — Excursion Day (zip lining, water falls, and horse back riding)

June 25, 26 — Work Days

June 27 — Travel Day

Who can go on the mission trip?

Current high school students and adult volunteers. No experience is needed! Come and share your God-given talents with the people of Costa Rica.

How much does the trip cost?

At most, $1,000 total, with a $200 non-refundable deposit due by January 26. Fundraising efforts might lower that amount. Scholarships are available.

How do I register for the trip?

Visit www.sardis.org/ministries/youth to register.

Who do I contact with questions?

Contact our Director of Youth Ministries, Adrian Martin at 704.778.6432 (c), 704.366.1854 (o), or email adrian.martin@sardis.org.